

Transportation and Directions: Tommy Douglas Conference Center, 10000 New Hampshire Ave., Silver Spring, MD 20903

Driving: from I-495 E (Capital Beltway) toward Baltimore/Silver Spring, take MD - 650 N. New Hampshire Ave., Exit 28A toward White Oak. Make your first left into the Center from Powder Mill Road.

Train: <https://www.amtrak.com>

Public Transportation: See <https://www.wmata.com> and <https://www.rideonbus.com>

Airports: Closest airports are: Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport and Washington Reagan National Airport.

- The SuperShuttle (shared ride) from BWI to the Tommy Douglas Conference Center is $32.
- The SuperShuttle (shared ride) from Washington Reagan National to the Tommy Douglas Conference Center is $26.

Additional Transportation Information:

If you plan to depart after the Friday program in downtown DC (see tentative agenda) the following are some transportation options:

- SuperShuttle (shared ride) will take passengers from the AFL-CIO building to BWI Airport for $41 or to Washington Reagan National Airport for $15.
<https://www.supershuttle.com/>
- Amtrak has tickets from Union Station to BWI for $12-$16 depending on how early it is booked. There is a $1.00 bus (the Circulator) at 16th and K St. NW (one block from the AFL-CIO Bldg.) that can take you to Union Station.
<http://www.dccirculator.com/georgetown-union-station/>
<https://www.amtrak.com/home.html>
- Metro: Walk approximately 0.2 mi. to Farragut West Metro Station. Enter at 17th & I St. NW entrance. Take the Blue Line to Franconia-Springfield. Exit at National Airport Metro Station.

