

Greetings from Sandra L. Williams

Executive Director of the Atlanta North Georgia Labor Conference

Dear Coalition of Labor Union Women,

It is indeed a pleasure to welcome you to the City of Atlanta for your annual Leadership Conference. As you may be aware, Atlanta is a city that is diverse in culture and ripe with Civil Rights history. We are also one of the largest cities in the South and we boast about our Mayor, Keisha Lance Bottoms.

The Atlanta North Georgia Labor Council is in the process of forming our first CLUW Chapter, although Carolyn Williams, an Atlantan and proud IBEW retiree previously served on the CLUW National Board.

Women all across this country recognize the need for and the benefits associated with solidarity. This is our time to come together to not only support one another, but to unify our collective voices and change the direction of our country. As Labor Women, we must lead the change we know is required for all to survive and that we wish to see. Thank you all and enjoy the conference!
