Greetings,

May 8, 2019

It is with great pleasure that we issue the Official Call for the 20th Biennial Convention of the Coalition of Labor Union Women, taking place October 15-18, 2019 at the Tropicana Las Vegas—a DoubleTree by Hilton hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada. The theme for the convention is “Sisters Not Afraid of Power: Coming Together to Change the World!”

This convention is a member convention. To participate in the convention with voice and vote you need to be a Regular National CLUW member in good standing by September 1, 2019. Delegates to the convention will be considering resolutions and constitutional amendments that will set the future direction for CLUW.

The women’s movement and the labor movement are facing some of the biggest challenges in our history, with battles on every front. This is our opportunity to engage those in the labor movement, our community allies and those in the women’s movement to form strong coalitions and fightback against those forces that are trying to diminish our power and eliminate gains we have struggled to achieve.

This convention is about working together to set new goals and frame our objectives from the founding principles that guide the work of our organization. Progress is made possible by networking, sharing information and developing ideas to form new programs and policies.

On Tuesday, October 15th we will offer a wide variety of workshops. Details will be posted on our web site.

Please note that observers are welcome to attend the convention and fully participate in all activities. However, they will be required to pay the appropriate registration fee and will be seated in a special section in the convention hall as they will not be able to have voice or vote.

We hope you will enjoy this exciting convention that includes workshops on a variety of topics, dynamic speakers and sessions to inspire and empower delegates and guests.

In Solidarity,

Bennie R. Bridges
Corresponding Secretary
